Dedication

In Memory of a highly respected faculty member, Jesse Zook . . .

We missed you this year. You had become a part of the school and of our hearts at Rosedale. We thought you belonged to us but God knew best.

We are forever indebted to you for the sacrifices you made for our sake and to your wife and children for sharing you with us.

Our searching hearts have found answers because you accepted God's will to lead us to the truth. We would pledge ourselves to share with others what you have shared with us.

We long to see the twinkle in your eyes again, feel the eagerness in your lectures, and sit once more at the feet of one whose knowledge and understanding were so profound. '

But listen! We can still hear your lingering voice. It echoes through the chapel walls, the testimonies of your pupils, in our notes, and in the thoughts we borrowed from your mind. These are solemn moments . . . moments in which we pause to render a fraction of the appreciation we wish to express. Yet it gives us joy to know you are living with Him whom you served so faithfully.

It is our honored privilege to dedicate this 1971 Gospel Star in recognition of what you have meant to us.

Thy Word Is Truth

To Thee, O God, our voices raise
In humble thanks and joyous praise;
Thy love encircles all Thy ways;
Thou great Sustainer of our days.

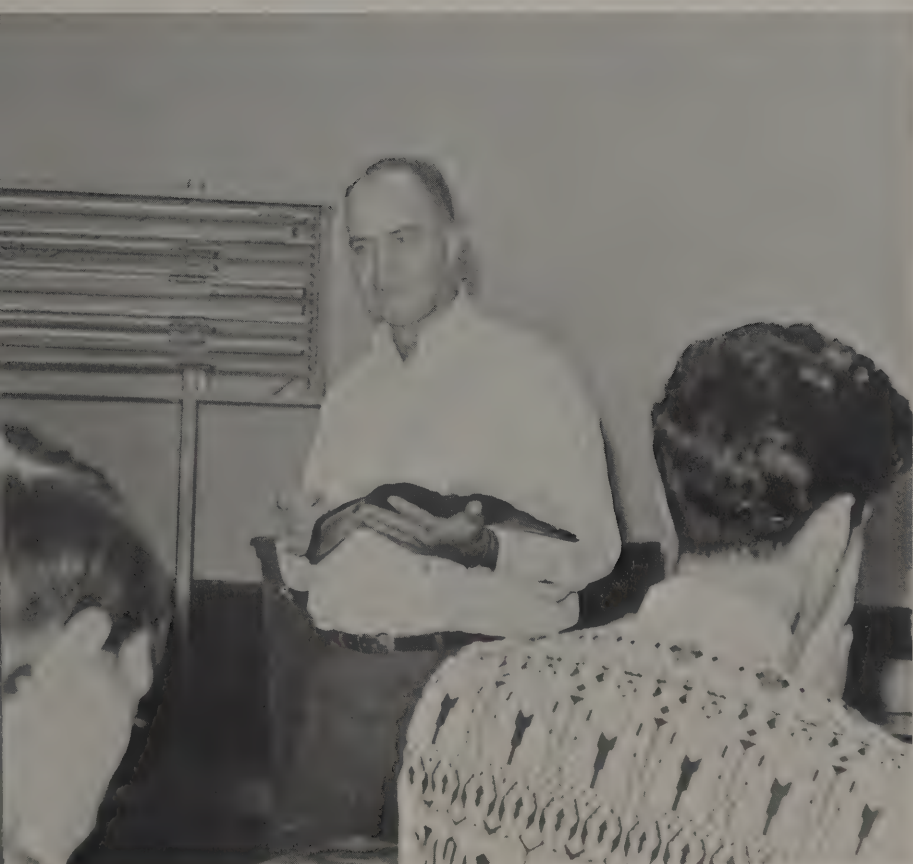

Thy Spirit's guidance us afford;
Indwell each soul by grace restored;
Within our hearts Christ reigns as Lord;
Thy Word our lamp, our shield, our sword.

For those who teach, for those who pray,
For those who come to learn Thy way;
A blessing fit; give strength each day,
O'er every life hold perfect sway.

O lead us, Father, as we go
With firm resolve Thy love to show,
That evil powers defeat shall know
As more like Thee we daily grow.

Unmoved we run the race;
Encircled round and free;
This shall our banner be:
Thy Word is Truth.

by Lucy Beachy

A Sweet Retreat

Along the road of life we find
Within these walls a sweet retreat
A quiet rest and peace of mind
While sitting down at Jesus' feet.

Our watchword truth, our will his way
Our goal to stand as Jesus stood
And here be taught to brave the fray
And share our love as Jesus would.

May God's rich blessings rest upon
You whom He chose to teach us here.
Through you He calls; our Hearts respond
As truth dispels all doubt and fear.

Lord take us as we are for thee
Lord make us what we ought to be
Our steps at Rosedale cannot fall
If we will crown Thee King of all.

"I'm positive that's the way it is!"

The summer of 1970 brought an addition to CMBI. Concerned persons wanted to make it possible for more students to study at Rosedale; therefore, a summer term was instituted. Three weeks, from July 13-31, were filled with study, fellowship, and recreation. Forty-three students were here to enjoy the term. They arrived from ten states and represented five conferences.

The courses of Christian Ethics and Doctrine of God were taught by Elmer Jantzi. Willard Mayer taught Christian Evidences and Word Study. Old Testament Typology and Romans were taught by Elam Peachy, and David Shomwelter taught Biblical Introduction and Family Nurture.

What will the future hold for the summer term? We anticipate a growing attendance as high school students and other youth or adults, who are occupied during the winter months, take advantage of the privilege of studying about God during the summertime.

The Master Potter Molds His Children,

Jan. 21-24, Wesley Stoltzfus spoke at revival services, which affected the lives of many.

Feb. 19-21, a student chat with Abner Stoltzfus, the speaker at Christian Life and Missions Conference.

Nov. 20-22, Sanford Shetler was speaker at our Spiritual Life Conference.

Using Words of Knowledge, Songs of Wisdom,

Men's Chorus.

Praises That Speak of Experiencing Him,

The ladies sing under the direction of David I. Miller while Henry Plank directs the mass chorus.

Songs That Express Our Need for His Help.

A mixed octet also sang along with the chorale at programs.

Right: John O. Yoder, the man with the baton.

And We Desire to Share Him with Others

Students give testimony through song.

Right: "Yes, believe me, Christ is someone worth talking about!"

In Christ all races become one.

Right: The Gospel reaches many people in many walks of life.

By Speaking of Him,

The spoken word plants seeds in the hearts of listeners.

Singing About Him,

Back at school the Service Committee formulates plans for services held at the rescue mission, jail, and nursing homes. Reva Burkey; Nadene Swartzentruber; Chairman, Cliff Troyer; Lynette Yutzy; Gary Troyer.

Right: The mission kitchen is a busy place as volunteers serve meals and fellowship with guests.

Sharing Him with Those Who Don't Know Him

Oops! Wrong key!

Oh, for my comfy bed back in room nine!

Above: Expressing Christ through Psalms.

Right: Behind the scenes, the Gospel Team Committee makes preparations.

And with Others Who Do Love Him.

How was your trip to New York?

"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter."

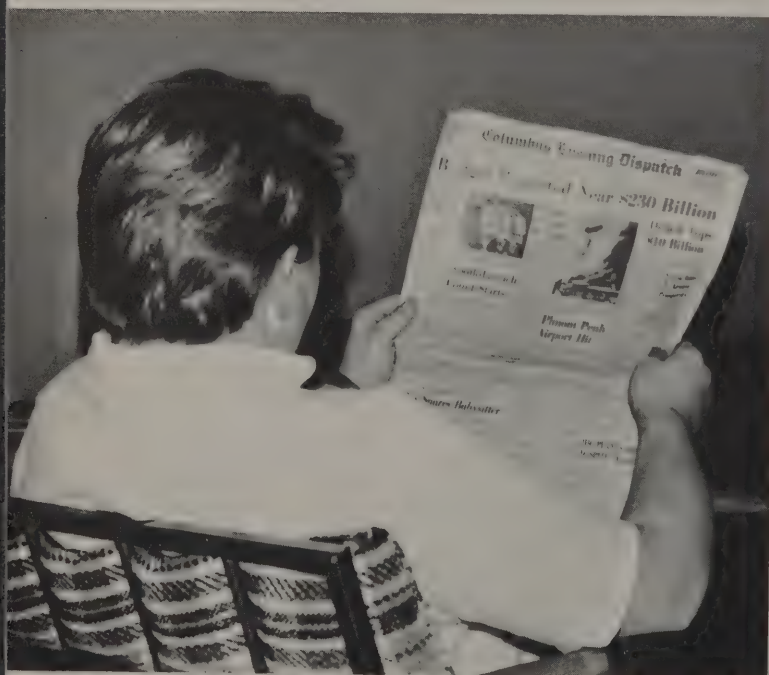

Love bugs under scrutiny.

Within Our Scholastic Community

Student Council pauses for pose during a discussion session. Dwight Gascho, Dave Siegrist, Ben Yoder, Joann Yoder, Leonard Hochstedler, Katharine Miller, Mary Jane Miller, Sharon Yoder.

Student Council makes possible a look into the outside world. Other projects include Dorm Open House, Prayer and Fasting Day, and a program by the Gospel Echoes.

Right: Chairman Leonard weighs the pros and cons.

We Share Him with One Another in Worship

Mary Carol states her view during a debate on capital punishment.

Larry shares his love for Christ.

Marietta projects a message through her artistic ability.

Ex-VSers to Central America express their joy through Spanish song.

And Exercise Abilities for His Glory,

Music to release tensions and make the heart grow lighter.

The singing nurses blend their voices for the listener's enjoyment.

Thus Learning to Know Each Other Better.

Who's who in the faculty determined by imitating students.

"We ten little Indians have just wasted ten little minutes of your precious time."

Right: Unknown talents in the faculty come to the surface in surprising ways.

We Combine Time, Talents and Energy

Editor-in-Chief: Ben Newcomer.

Deadline frustrations.

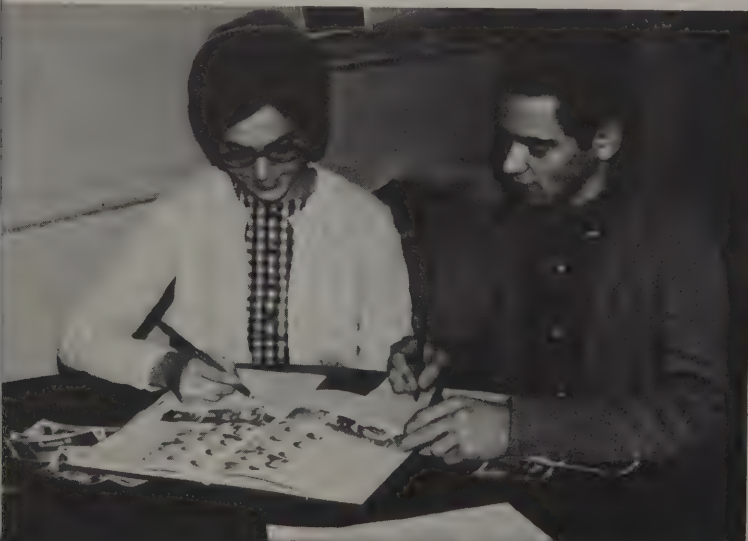

Associate Editor: Karen Burkey.

Literary Staff: Editor, Ellen Mast; Arlin Schrock.

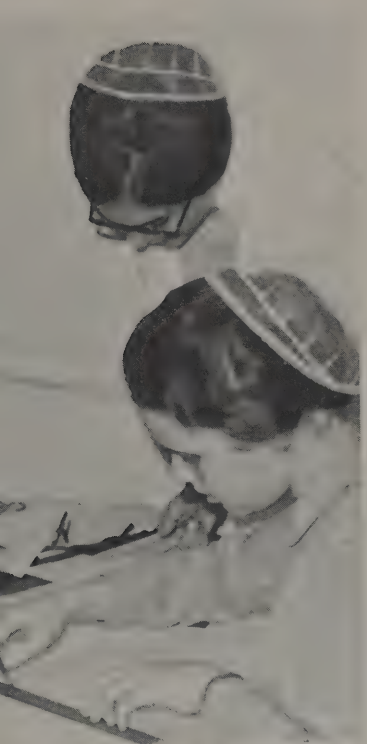

Typist: Miriam Hershberger, Marlene Troyer

Artists: Doris King, Rose Stoltzfus, Marietta Beachy (not pictured).

Right: Bontrager risks a burp in Public Speaking.

Study and Fun,

Above: Fellows are challenged to lives of service.

Right: What's so funny, Sharon Ramer?

Sharing Experiences from the Mountain Tops

"Study to shew thyself approved . . ."

—"The revival swept the whole student body. I've never seen it this way before. It was really remarkable."

—"A friend has discovered new happiness in Christ. Oh, bliss! For it was He who had earlier helped me do the same."

—"Learning, discovering truth; social and interpersonal relationships define CMBI well."

—"Overheard following a period of prayer and fasting . . . "I've never eaten for a whole hour and enjoyed a meal as much as this one."

—"Fasting and prayer was a meaningful channel through which we totally committed ourselves to know God's will."

—"To share with a friend my problems and joys, pray together about them, and then to see God begin to answer, this is security—warm, deep, and satisfying."

Right: Feasting in spirit.

Rivival finds expression.

—"Having time to really dig into the Word and to seriously meditate on it—this has made attending CMBI a rich experience for me."

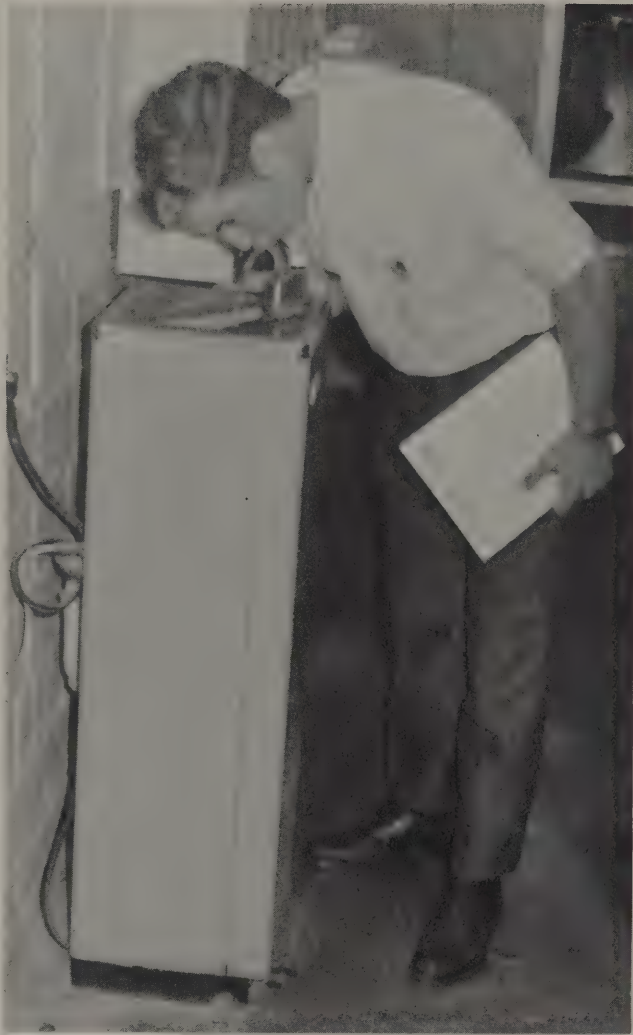

—"In praying together we felt a common bond, the love and peace of Jesus Christ."

—"Through the revivals I was saved and came to a new awareness of Christ."

—"Through fasting and prayer I experienced a deeper communion and fellowship with Jesus Christ."

But Going on to Make Them Practical,

"Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again . . ."

"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do; do it with thy might."

"Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood . . . a peculiar people . . ."

"Wise men lay up knowledge."

As Life Combines Laughter with Solemnity

"The thief cometh not but for to steal . . ."

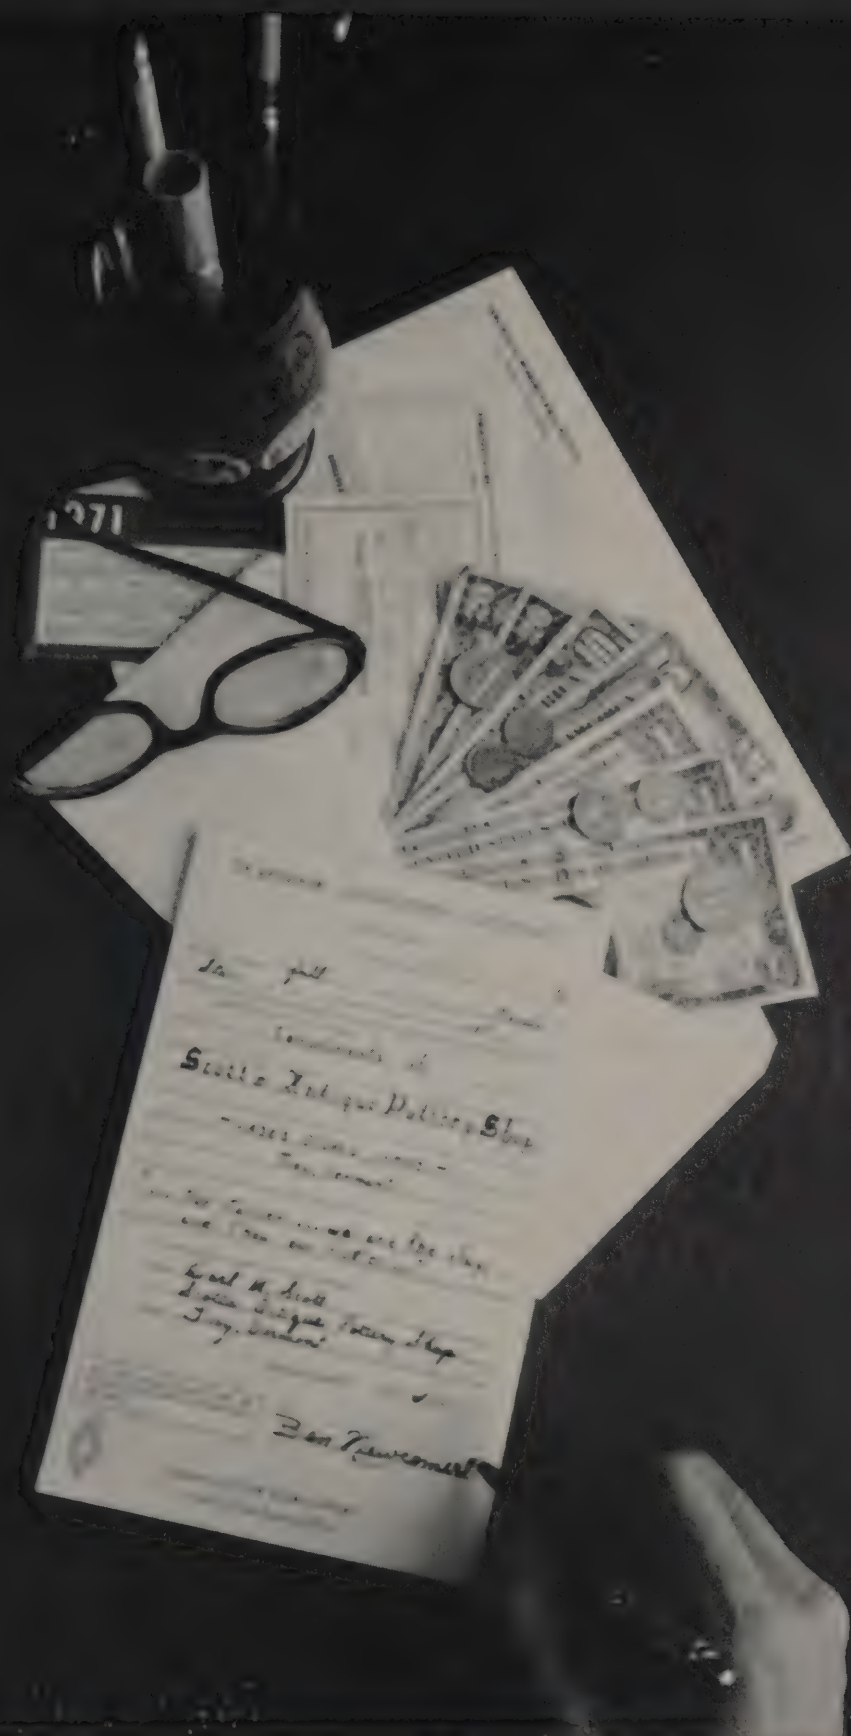

"Sing unto Him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise."
